We will be discussing COSCA's white paper: "Digital Recording: Changing Times for Making the Court Record."

TCRA Vice President of Finance Jo Anne Leger and TCRA Past-President Robin Cooksey will join us to discuss the COSCA White Paper and the impact it will have on Texas citizens and Texas reporters. This white paper recommends that our courts should switch to digital audio recording as the official record.

If you want to read this document, please go to:
<http://cosca.ncsc.dni.us/WhitePapers/DigitalRecording-Jan-2010.pdf>

We will also be discussing the proposed revisions to the Uniform Format Manual. The deadline for public comment will be March 18th by 5:00 p.m. If you want to read this document, please go to: <http://www.crcb.state.tx.us>

Please join us for this meeting. It is time for us to plan our strategy to stand up for the rights of all the citizens of Texas to have a true, accurate record done responsibly by a professional court reporter.

Connie Chan, TCRA Area 8 Director
